PEOPLE'S MASS STATE CONVENTION! At Madison, Wisconsin, Thursday, July 13.

All men opposed to the Repeal of the Missouri Compromise, the Extension of Slavery, and the Rule of the Slave Power, are invited to meet at Madison, Thursday, July 13, to take such measures as may be deemed necessary to prevent the future encroachments of the Slave Power, to repeal all Compromises in favor of Slavery, and to establish the principle of Freedom as the rule of the State and National Governments. The time has come for the union of all Free Mon for the sake of Freedom. There is but one alternative. We must unite and be free, or divide and be enslaved, by the prætorian bands of the Slave-holders and their Nebraska allies.

DR. MeLANE'S VERMIFUGE.

It is no small evidence of the intrinsic value of this great Vermifuge, when even physicians, who are generally prejudiced against patent medicines, voluntarily come forward and testify to its triumph ant success in expelling worms. Read the following:

I am a practicing physician, residing permanently in this place. In the year 1843, when a resident of the State of Missouri, I became acquainted with the superior virtues of Dr. McLane's Vermifuge. At some more leisure moment, I will send the result of an experiment I made with one vial, in expelling upwards L. CARTER, M. D. of 900 worms. J. Kidd & Co.

Purchasers will please be careful to ask DR. McLANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, and take none else. All other Vermifuges, in comparison, are worthless. Dr. McLane's genuine Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States and Canada.

Eternal Vigilance is the price of Liberty.' PROSPECTUS OF THE PREE CITIZEN.

A PAPER FOR THE PEOPLE.

THE undersigned proposes to publish at the seat of government of Pennsylvania, an Independent Democratic weekly newspaper under the above title; and, in announcing this purpose, we deem it proper to refer briefly to a few of the general principles which shall govern our course.

to refer briefly to a few of the general principles which shall govern our course.

The Scripture toaches that "God created man in his own image," and that all men are consequently bretheren. The Declaration of Independence recognises this truth when it declares that "all men are created equal, and that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

We believe in the Constitution of the United States, which declares its purpose to be "to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquillity, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty," and hold that all its provisions should be construed in accordance with this general purpose.

This was the position and purpose of the saces of the Revolution, and we, their descendants, should labor to secure the blessings of individual liberty and the Revolution, and we, their descendants, should labor to secure the blessings of individual liberty and national liberty.

We believe in Democracy—a government by the People and for the People—in the Democracy of free thought, free speech, free conscience, free labor, and free men—in the Democracy which loathes Oppression, and which does not bend its back to sustain the interests of a Class, however powerful or imposing its numbers or position. A Democracy which does this, which despises the People, underrates their intelligence, disregards their opinions, and abuses their confidence, we look upon as a pretence and a sham. If man is to be considered merely as a stall led animal, to be satisfied when filled with creature comforts, then will free citizens and free laborers be looked upon as a nuisance and an incumbrance; but not when they are regarded as the life-blood of the Republic. We have been told that such a paper as we propose to print cannot live in the atmosphere of Harrisburg, that the politicians of Pennsylvania have so debauched her public sentiment as to crush out all regard for Justice, Humanity and the Rights of Man as proclaimed in the Declaration of Independence; but we do not believe this. Every friend of freedom and democracy has a personal interest in the reputation of the Commonwealth, and we trust every friend of the cause will do his part to sustain THE FREE CITIZEN, and refute this slander on the Keystone State.

TERMS.—THE FREE CITIZEN will be printed on a large and handsome sheet, at Two Dollars per year, payable invariably in advance. Three copies will be sent for $5; 5 copies for $8; and 10 copies for $15. No paper will he sent unless the money accompanies the order. Address

This preparation, by E. P. EASTMAN, M. D. of the last four years, with the greatest success. A radical cure has been effected in very instance where the directions have been strictly followed and persevered in. It is now given to the public with the full confidence that it will do all that is claimed for it, and prove itself, upon fair trial, an infallible Sick Headache Remedy.

It is safe and pleasant to the taste, it brings immediate relief, and all who test its curative virtues rejoice in the remova of pain, and marvel at its power in alleviating so general, and often so fatal, a scourge The following is from D. Draw Sir: A member of my family—a daughter, ten years of age—was afflicted with the sick headache, and we tried various remedies without success. When, however, you administered to her your "Headache Powders," we found them to he very beneficial, and, in fact, restored her to health.

I should, without hesitation, recommend them to those afflicted; and I beg to assure you, that I fully appreciate their value.

Respectfully yours,

D. C. Baker.

LYNN, August 6, 1853. My DEAR Sig: I avail myself of this opportunity to express to you my high appreciation of the efficiency and value of your Sick Headache Remedy. I have been afflicted, since my childhood, with very severe turns of sick headache, and have tried various remedies which have been prescribed, but found no considerable relief until I tried your remedy, which, I am happy to say, has almost entirely cared me. Several of my neighbors and friends have tried your medicine, and in overy instance it has entirely relieved or greatly mollified the disease.

[Jan. 2.] HOOE, BROTHER, & CO. TO THE CONSUMERS OF DRY GOODS Who Seek their Supplies in our Market.

ONE PRICE ONLY. We are now in our NEW STORE, which was erected expressly for us. We think it the most comfortable and best lighted storeroom in the city; and with increased room, facilities, and experience, deemed quite ample, we shall deal largely in FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS.

FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS, of every style, all of the best qualities, and for which we shall have one price only.

We shall sell cheaper than we ever have done; and in having one price only (which, in our opinion, is the only fair and equitable way of doing business) we shall maintain our self-respect, which is above all price or success. Moreover, we expect to retain all the trade of those prompt customers who have made their purchases of us for some years past, and doubtless we shall have a large accession of new customers, who prefer to buy where one fair price only is asked. We feel that our simple word is requisite only to satisfy our former customers that the one price system is the correct one, and to their advantage; and we do not hesitate to assert our belief that all candid and intelligent persons will, after an impartial examination of prices, fabric, and styles, give a one price store the preference. Those who are not judges of goods cannot fail to be impressed at once with the manifold and vast advantages to the purchaser resulting from the adoption in good fasts of the one price system; it necessarily insures low prices to the purchaser, for it becomes absolutely necessary to meet at the start all competition that can be offered in prices.

Our scale of prices will be so low, and the profits so.

Our scale of prices will be so low, and the profits so small, that we cannot and will not sell but for the cash or to customers who pay promptly. For those who purchase very largely, or to sell again, reductions will be made.

The public are cordially and most respectfully invited to call at all times and examine our stock.

THE CONFLICT OF AGES!

BY DR. EDWARD BRECHER. This Remarkable Work has reached its Fifth Edition, in the brief space of Four Months! A success unprecedented in Theological Pub-

A success unprecedented in Incological Publications!

A impression has already been produced by this masterly treatise, the most profound, wide reaching, and permanent.

It is perfectly manifest to all competent observers, that we are upon the eve of a theological discussion, the most comprehensive, radical, and portentous, the world has ever seen. To this discussion this book leads the way, with a momentum irresistible. There is not a question in Theology which is not destined to come up for a new and thorough settlement in the light of this final development.

All those who have Theological doubts and difficulties should examine the solution this work affords. Those who have no doubts, but who wish to study the history of opinions in the past, and to keep pace with the developments of opinion in the future, will grievously err if they neglect to make themselves familiar with this book. It contains the seeds of the thinkings and dehatings of the next hundred years. The reception of this work by the The logical press of the country, has been significant. Equally declining to accept his conclusion, they do it on opposite and contradictory grounds. One half of the Theological press endorses the major premise of the argument, and denice the minor. The other half endorses the minor, and denics the major. And as they are probably both right in their positive element, and wrong in their negative, the work has received a Virtual Endorsement of the most powerful kind.

As regards the ability of the work, and its claims on the attention of all, the following extracts may suffice:

From the Princeton Repertory—Old School Orthodox.

From the Princeton Repertory—Old School Orthodox.

It is characterised by great ability, by an earnest spirit, by frankness, candor, and courtesy. It has a special interest for us. We HAIL IT AS AN ALLY. The author shuts his readers up to the choice between Orthodoxy and the doctrine of Pre-Existence.

Orthodoxy and the doctrine of Pre-Existence.

From the Universalist Quarterly and General Review, Jan., 1854.

We have the novel spectacle of a man clinging with a masterly grasp to all the fundamentals of Orthodoxy, * * yet dealing it a blow beneath which it reels.

It would be difficult to find within the limits of a hundred pages any treatise or essay that can compare in importance with this analysis (B. iv) of Orthodox doctrines. Dr. Beecher has struck upon the right principle in his theory of typical interpretation, in the fifth of Romans.

National Era. This work has caused a great commotion among the D D.'s in our land. It merits their attention.

The most significant work on Theology which has appeared of late.

In many respects, this volume is one of the most curious, as well as one of the most suggestive, productions of modern American Theology.

From the United States Argus. To those persons who may visit Washington are in want of a boot that cannot be excelled, e are in want of a boot that cannot be excelled, either in quality or workmanship, we would call their attention to the card of Henry Janney, to be found under the head of "Washington." A handsome and neatly-made boot is not at all times a source of pleasure to the wearer, but often one of extreme torture; this is caused by the bungling manner in which the boot is fitted to the foot. Mr. Janney has devoted much of his time in studying the construction of the human toot, in order to ascertain how a boot should be cut and fitted, that will be perfectly easy to all parts of the foot. In this he has succeeded, so that it matters not what may be the shape of, or the number of corns not what may be the shape of, or the number of corn on the foot, his boot is perfectly easy. Thus he ha combined beauty with comfort.

WE abound in magazines and newspapers, suited to the wants and tastes of all classes, yet the thirst for montal recreation and intelligence, which is one of the characteristics of our people, encourages as in the belief that another well-conducted publication will be amply sustained.

Competition, which has teen called "the life of trade," is now such in the periodical line, that, by the ordinary mode, it is a hazardous undertaking to the publisher to attempt, even with a large capital, to establish a magazine or paper. Not unfrequently, thousands of dollars are expended before it is made to yield a profit; and it has become a settled principle, that subscribers must be paid for, in one way or another. Periodicals are remunerative only when they have a large circulation, and Premiums are commonly given to increase subscription lists.

We design to furnish a handsomely-printed, hightoned, witty, entertaining, and instructive Quarto, (a suitable form for binding,) which in one year will comprise a large amount of usefal information, and as a reflex of the times and a record of current events will be found worthy of preservation. Intending it to be, most emphatically, a paper for the people, we shall advocate their rights, their interests, their welfare; our motto being "the greatest good to the largest number."
